

The New York Times reported 51% of all women now live alone and one out of three American couples is platonic.

Today, leading authorities on www.divorcerate.org are saying the divorce rate in America for first marriages is 50%, 67% of second marriages and 74% of third marriages. Those statistics show most marriages aren't moving toward intimacy. They are fixed at varying levels of adjustment with deep emptiness and rigid distance while remaining under clouds of despair.

A MORE Weekend is designed to address core issues and go boldly where most tend not to go: where the real pain is. As an investment whose goal is to put hope back into the marriage by reducing distance and moving your relationship toward genuine intimacy, MORE is a 14 hour commitment, less than 1% of a year.

“We came looking for help with our marriage and instead received a renovation of our lives.

Jerry Price's program provides an extreme life makeover, restructuring the inner framework of the heart rather than the cosmetic affects of behavior, for anyone with the courage and openness to let it.”

—Public Speaker and Radio Personality

“Seeking professional help during our time of crisis from someone that we felt could relate to us was very important. Through Jerry's unique method of counseling, we found ourselves able to work through one of the most difficult issues a marriage can face—infidelity.”

—Former NFL Athlete and wife

“It would be inaccurate to say our marriage is better since we did intensive work with Jerry. A much better description is to say our marriage is completely different. We are no longer a little boy or little girl striving with one another for validation....but are being used as a powerful force for good in each other's life.”

—Pastor and wife

Reaching for the top in your relationship with MORE Married Weekends is a journey worth taking

From Courtship to Now: Shaping your relationship

Most complaints about marriage don't arise because it is worse than the rest of life, but because it is no better.

This segment looks at our commitment to struggle during four stages every marriage will cycle through and answers questions like the following: What work was done to form the relationship? How the tone is set to make the marriage work? How can there be a growing confidence that the relationship will last?

From Now to the Future: Shrinking marital shadows

Every couple is bent to hide from each other but marital health is built on coming out of the shadows and reengaging each other where marriage can be better.

This segment begins the process for understanding how you can start being MORE married than before. The life long process of coming out of personal shadows is modeled in a safe environment of small group confidentiality and accountability by addressing your ability to be open in thinking through a tool called the STAR Energizer.

You'll get to see where and how you excel in the marriage or when you're at a threshold for failure in your marriage.

Now: Strengthening your marriage

There is a story to be told where marriages can learn from their experiences. Without that story, there is no hope to go where marriages are better. This segment provides the opportunity for each couple to tell their marital story and begin writing new history to move forward.

In the open where the group and its facilitators listen and provide feedback, your passions, strengths and fears are revealed in developing a strategy for growing love over time. You may have felt and even believed you are alone but MORE can be ahead for you after this weekend of developing your strategy for marital success.

MORE Married Facilitators

Jerry Price is a professional counselor, consultant and author. His career path has also included the pastorate, education and coaching. He developed a treatment module for marriages at risk and created a web based tool called the STAR Energizer to encourage successful and responsible decision making. He advises organizations interested in developing healthy cultures of open and honest candor and works with athletes and other professionals struggling through transition, marital and family issues. Jerry received his MA in Counseling from Grace Seminary, in Winona Lake, Ind. He and his wife

Judy reside in Sisters, Oregon and have three adult children and six grandchildren.

Judy Price is Jerry's better half. She is not only the mother of their three adult children but has been a faithful supporter of Jerry's career in ministry and counseling throughout their 42 years of marriage. She functions as office manager for Jerry Price LLC and has been trained to facilitate MORE Married Weekends along with Jerry.

Additional trained facilitators for MORE Married Weekends are also available when groups number more than 6-8 couples at a time.
